While we are in our scheduling modes, I just obtained the 2006-07 school calendar and spring break is, you guessed it, April 2-6, the exact time of the first week of our scheduled trial. As you may recall, Judge Penn indicated that we could change the date if we needed to. I would be MOST APPRECIATIVE if we can either move it a few weeks forward, or back (so that we would start in early March, or in early May). I am mindful we want to complete it before the summer, so either of these would work for me. I suspect these dates would be available if we ask the Court now, but if we wait, they may fill up.

Thank you for your consideration. Elaine

Subject: Deposition Scheduling

Hello all:

I have had the opportunity to communicate with Ms. Gaujacq about the scheduling of her deposition following our discussions. Unfortunately, Ms. Gaujacq recently moved to Mississippi for her job, which is compounding things. Because of the newness of her job, she is also on borrowed time for vacation time, so this has been some effort. With the dictate of reserving two days in January, Ms. Gaujacq can be here either January 12 and 13 or January 19 and 20. Both of those dates have conflicts for me, but I will move them if necessary to accommodate. However, I need to know literally asap, as one of the dates I have committed to be a substitute judge, and another I have a court date scheduled (unfortunately, one of each of these is in the two sequences). So I would appreciate your efforts to check your schedules and get back to me as quickly as possible, but no later than Friday if I will have any realistic chance of changing my conflicts. Sorry to be so quick, but I had not anticipated the difficulties with Ms. Gaujacq's move and absence of vacation time.

When we arrive at Ms. Gaujacq's deposition dates, we can then fix Mr. Nadal's and the corporate designee. If you want to send me available dates for those to get that in place for your convenience, I will be happy to work with you on that as well.

Thanks for your assistance and cooperation. Elaine

Counse: You may recall my sending you a request to continue the trial either three weeks before the scheduled date, or three weeks after. Should I represent to the Court in my request that you are not in agreement with the request for a change in the trial date? Please let me know so that I can timely file the request. Thank you for your consideration.

Elaine:

We have no problem with agreeing with you to request a change in the trial schedule to accommodate your family vacation schedule, but we need to confirm with EDF that there is no particular timing problem as to either of the two alternative dates you proposed. I hope to have a response on this by the end of the week.
